

WARNING! YOU MAY BE TARGETED NEXT!

What you are about to read is a true story. For the past two years I have been under attack by a mostly unidentified group of assailants. Eventually I began doing some research and what I found was disturbing: There is a form of terrorism taking place across the United States in which innocent citizens are being targeted and harassed by multiple people to the point of psychological torture. I am not alone. Thousands of fellow citizens across the country have reported cases strikingly similar to mine.

These crimes are being called “gang stalking” or “organized stalking.” You will find hundreds of websites, blogs, and videos online from victims crying out for help, but due to the nature of these crimes they are extraordinarily hard to prosecute because they are designed to mimic mental illness. Even more frightening, in many cases the U.S. Federal Government appears to be the primary culprit behind the harassment—using the paranoid, post-9/11 national environment, the Patriot Act, and false investigations as leverage to do so.

- The process begins when a group of trained professionals starts circulating vicious, false rumors about the “target,” such as claiming they are a criminal. In other cases they spread rumors that the victim is crazy, paranoid, or that they are just playing a prank on them. Whatever the case, they use these lies to recruit ordinary citizens into participating in the harassment and to discredit any complaints the target may file, as well as isolate him or her from friends and family. This is a silent smear campaign and participants are manipulated into not divulging any details to the target, giving him or her no opportunity to defend their reputation. They are thus tried, convicted and sentenced by the community with no form of due process.
- The goal seems to be to assault the target on ALL levels—personal, professional, online, psychological, physical, legal, and financial—yet leave them with little or no grounds for legal recourse. It has been reported that in some cases gag orders citing national security are used to silence potential witnesses.
- The target is then monitored around the clock and audio and video recordings are carefully edited and circulated among participants in order to justify the ongoing attacks. This monitoring is additionally used to break into the target’s home repeatedly, and to harass them via “noise campaigns,” “street theater,” and other forms of harassment wherever they go.
- Many victims also report “electronic harassment,” which is the use of directed energy weapons, such as microwaves and lasers. This may sound like science fiction, but weapons’ experts around the world have testified that these weapons are real. More disturbing, ex-military officers have stated that the U.S. Government is using gang stalking as a way to discredit victims in order to test these weapons on them and engage in other forms of illegal human experimentation. This is said to be an extension of the MKUltra program the CIA perpetrated in the 1950s, 60s, and 70s. This is not a joke! These weapons are silent and they can be administered through handheld devices, by plane, or satellite. They cause tremendous cognitive and physical damage, including acute aggression, paranoia, hallucinations, debilitating insomnia, leukemia, lymphoma, and in concentrated attacks can reduce the human body to ash.

Organized stalking may be one of the most frightening and little known forms of terrorism taking place in the world today, and it is being perpetrated against American citizens right here on sovereign U.S. soil.

What You Can Do to Help

1. Educate yourself. Below is a list of videos and websites to get you started. Just be aware, a number of victims believe some websites and videos are fake, being designed by the perpetrators themselves in order to discredit true victim's claims. Organized stalking is absolutely real. It has been reported by many thousands of people around the world.
2. Do not participate! If someone asks you to participate in these crimes, in any way, report them to the police. If they claim to be government officials or law enforcement, remember that no one has the right to harass or intimidate a fellow citizen—especially your government! These people are criminals and they should be treated as such even if they are hiding behind badges.
3. Do not believe them. Those involved in this activity are highly trained and deceptive, and they use misinformation and outright lies to manipulate the public.
4. Collect information about the perpetrators, such as their name, phone number, license plate number, and take a discreet picture or video if possible. Give these items and information to the targeted individual, either in person or by email, even if you choose to do so anonymously. Also, be sure you hear back from them. In most cases victims' email and phones are being monitored, and important communications are often deleted by the perps.
5. Copy this flyer and share it with all your friends and family, and ask them to do the same.
6. Contact your state representative regarding organized stalking and demand these claims be investigated.
